Tennis Anyone?

What do you do when tennis is your passion, but there is no team at N.B.? You play anyway. And that's just what seniors Eddie Garcia and Bryan Wittenmeyer did last spring.

Practice paid off when both players advanced to sectionals at Ada. Eddie won his first match over Ed Sheppard of Continental but lost to Chuck Rollins, Van Wert's top player.

Bryan won over Jason Griner, Paulding; Jeff Leopold, Ottawa-Glandorf; and Ravi Cherulcuri, Van-

Wert. He lost to No.1 seed Bret DeCurtins, Lima Central Catholic.

Later he beat Montanaro of VanWert in a consolation match.

At Districts in B.G., Bryan won two matches, one against a sectional champ from Milan Edison.

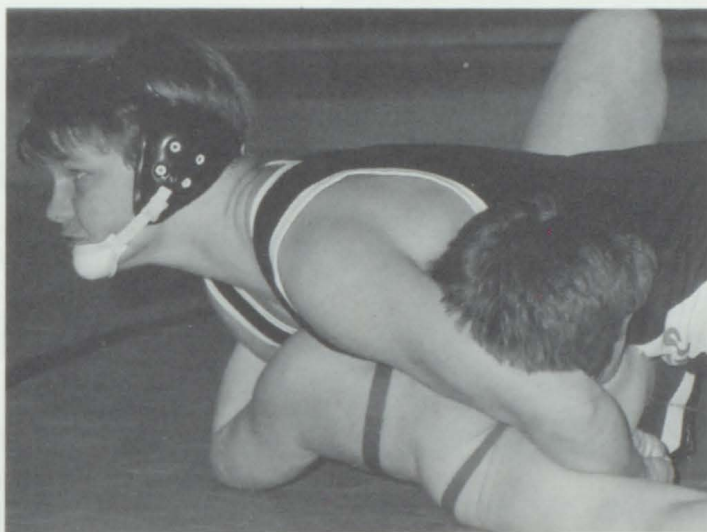

Oliver Behn of Napoleon took Bryan in the semi-finals, and a Bryan, Ohio player won the consolation match.

Bryan fell one win short of advancing to State.

Publications: What It Is

By Kelli Roberts

Hard work and dedication make it possible for you to receive a year-book each year.

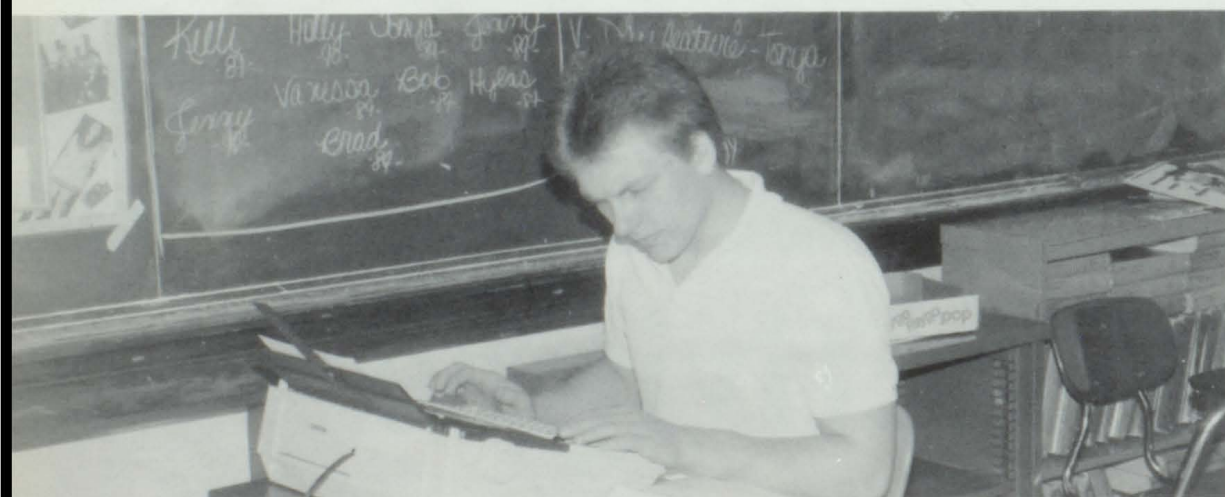

With a meager staff of nine, the publications class put in a lot of time, work, and heart to make this book special for you.

Publications students worked on the Tiger, wrote stories for the N.B. News, and presented students with three Tiger Talk newsletters this year.

The staff hopes you enjoyed the Treasured Memories we collected for you.

Top: Jenny Shultz painstakingly works to perfect her layout. Right: Second-year publications student Kelli Roberts signed up to help out with the Tiger (without credit) and we're glad she did! Far right: Hylas Stemen, ace caption writer, types a copy sheet for his layout.
