PROM 1994

After weeks of searching for "the dress", months of working to secure the perfect date and a year of planning, Prom '94, PHANTOM OF THE OPERA took off. Saturday, April 16 was the long awaited day that brought N.B.H.S. students out dressed to the tee.

Girls dressed in a variety of styles ranging from very frilly dresses to more simple straight versions. The guys decked out in the hippest tux fashions, with perfect matching cumberbums and ties.

After dinner, Senior wills were read and the Prom King, Joe Lanning, and Queen, Leanne Watkins, were crowned. This was the first time in many years that a Queen and King were crowned.

The rest of the night was filled with dancing to Radical Renditions.

Suzie Kaltenbach, Dawn Chapman, Sandra Buchanan, and Dameion Cortez enjoy 2 stepping.

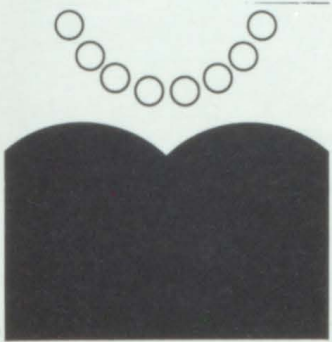

Matt Mason snuggles with his date.

Kim Kast and Ann Francisco take a break from dancing.

Kristi Logan and Graig Wymer share a magical moment in time.

King Joe Lanning and Queen Leanne Watkins slow dance to some romantic music.

Jennifer Ditto, Kristin Straley and dates relax after eating dinner and enjoy doing some people watching.

A TIME TO MOVE ON

On Sunday, June 5th 1994, 46 orange and black robed N.B.H.S. Seniors marched into the Main School Gymnasium. Marcy Miklovic, Carrie Mills, and Brad Houdashelt came out loud and clear with "Words of Wisdom" in their Honor Addresses for fellow classmates.

As friends and family looked on, one by one the students came across the stage. Presenting the class of 1994 was Superintendent Mr. Richard Van Mooy, and accepting the class, The President of The Board of Education, Mr. Jon Downs. Principal Robert Reublin assisted in the presentation of diplomas.

Finally, to top off the ceremony, cheers from parents and classmates filled the air as the 46 tassels were turned and the caps went flying. It was Time To Move On!

Honor Addresses: Marcy Miklovic—"The Importance of Commencement" Carrie Mills—"Goals and Dreams" Brad Houdashelt—"A Glimpse of What's To Be."

Mr. Robert Reublin welcomes everyone to the 103rd Annual Commencement. Jennifer Ditto and Adrian Ballbach accept their diplomas from Mr. Richard Van Mooy and Mr. Jon Downs.

BEHIND THE SCENES

The making of the yearbook

Claudia Swygert shows that it takes precision and creativity to design a layout.

Dena Bear designs her spread making sure photos, captions, graphics, and headlines are perfect.

Claudia Swygert, April Rayle-Barnes, and Vicki Middleton decide which picture will look the best.

Dena Bear and Vicki Middleton discuss how they're going to design their layout.

Josh Clark types his copy for the yearbook.
