Tigers 1998

The Tigers had a long and rough season, but kept a positive attitude nevertheless. With the support of their new coach, Mr. Bob Reublin, the Tigers stayed strong and held their heads high throughout the season. Good luck to next year's team from the class of '99.

Go Hard . . . Or Go Home

The 1998 boys cross country team successfully completed the season with a 7 - 1 dual-meet record finishing sixth in the MAL. The lady Tigers with a 3 - 5 - 1 dual-meet record and an eighth place finish in the MAL, also finished well. The teams, led by captains Josh Hagemyer, Phil Walter, Tim Bankey, Jake Lindquist, Jayme Glamm, and Meghan Strang, benefitted from strong senior leadership. Josh Hagemyer and Meghan Strang were chosen as the teams' Most Valuable Runners, and both were named MAL Honorable Mentions. Tim Bankey and Audrey Bentz were the year's Most Improved Runners, while coaches Gregg Glamm and Denise Greene awarded Jake Lindquist and Amanda DeVaul the coaches' awards.

Torres and Glamm reign as King and Queen

by Andy Kuhlman

Wide receiver Joe Torres and cross country co-captain Jayme Glamm were crowned queen and king during Homecoming festivities October 9th. Along with Andy Allison and Wes Thomas, the other king candidates, Joe prepared for the big game against the Seneca East Tigers, while Jayme, Brooke Gazarek, Audrey Bentz, and Jessi Perry were being paraded down Main Street.

Emotions were running high as the four gorgeous potential queens were driven atop convertibles through the streets of North Baltimore. "I was really nervous," remembers Jayme "I really didn't know who would win."

Others were just struggling to survive, "I was afraid I was going to fall off the top of the car," adds Brooke.

The four women braved inclement weather as they prepared for the crowning. "It was so cold," Brooke recalls "we all had chattering teeth."

"I was freezing," agrees Audrey. "It was really cold outside."

The tension built as the ladies prepared to walk down the field. Audrey and Andy walked down between the rows of band members first, followed by Brooke and Wes, and then Jayme and Joe. Andy then returned to the visitor side of the field to escort Jessi down the fifty.

"Even though I was nervous all evening," said Jessi warmly, "I was excited at the field, because even if I wasn't crowned, I knew that one of my friends, someone who really deserved it, would be."

Senior attendants sparkle and shine on October 9th

Because of the overwhelming popularity of this year's group of senior girls, four of these young women represented their class in the 1998 Fall Homecoming festivities. Attendant Andy Allison had to do double duty, as he escorted both Jessi Perry and Audrey Bentz down the fifty yard line. From left, Audrey Bentz and Andy Allison; Brooke Gazarek and Wes Thomas; and Jessi Perry and Andy Allison represented the Class of 1999.

After a disappointing 2-18 season, the Tiger women ended their season with a loss to Gibsonburg in tournament action. Although remaining virtually scoreless in the first two quarters, the tigers, led by lone senior Meghan Strang, poured it on for an excellent second half outscoring Gibsonburg 35-27. Strang and Freshman Holly Shamp put on an excellent show leading the Tigers in scoring. Brigitte Thomas and Rani Kuhlman held the bears to only 11 points in the fourth. At the sports awards, Meghan Strang was honored as team MVP and best foul shooter, while Brigitte Thomas was honored for Most Rebounds. Amanda DeVaul was most improved and Lindsey Perez received the coaches' award.
