Meghan Strang: 7th-800.
Also running: Brent
Smith 300-H and Boys'
3200-m relay team.

RIGHT: Brent Smith hurdles over the last obstacle between him and victory in the 300-meter hurdles. Smith broke the North Baltimore High School Hurdles record with a time of 42.3 seconds.

BELOW: Tiger Track Captains Jayme Glamm and Meghan Strang start against their McComb rivals. Strang holds the record for the 1600-meter run and was part of the record-breaking 3200-meter relay team along with Glamm. Both records were set back in 1997.

ABOVE: Ryan Glamm and Kevin Gonyer look exhausted as they finish the mile run. Glamm was a member of the 3200-meter relay team that qualified for regionals this year.

RIGHT: Massive Paul Perry launches the Discus airborne during a warm May meet. Perry, one of five seniors on the boys' team, placed well in meets throughout the year, but narrowly missed qualifying for regionals.

BELOW: Senior Co-Captain Josh Hagemyer flies through the 800 meter run. He holds the record for that event with a time of 1:59.98. Hagemyer teamed up with Strang, Bankey, and Glamm to qualify for regionals in the 3200-meter relay.

FAR BELOW: Sophomore Jill Zeltner hurdles through the 100-meter hurdles. In her second year of track, Zeltner turned in strong finishes in both hurdling events, as well as contributing to the sprint relay teams.
