ODE TO NORTH BALTIMORE GIRLS BASKETBALL 1999-2000

Once upon a time, in a small town, far away,
Lived some girls who pound some basketballs and wanted to play.

They saw the new coach and looked in wonder.
Kloepfer was his name, and down the hall they heard him thunder!

Coach Don was the old timer, whom everyone knew.
Perez dribbled up to the 3rd face and said, "Who are you?"

For 4 months we worked to learn how to box out,
Shoot the ball, sprint the floor, and how NOT to foul out!

We had our ups, and we had our downs.
Nothing was more fun than when Shamp knocked Don to the ground!

Not a day went by when Kloepfer didn't joke.
But you can be sure at halftime no one else spoke!

"Get the ball to Rani! Be aggressive in there, Thomas!"
"We will coach, we'll play defense, we promise!"

The W's, though few, made us a better team.
In spite of the losses, we were better than we seemed!

So, into the summer, we will put out new-found determination to the test.
By dribbling, passing, and shooting, we'll make North Baltimore Girls Basketball better than the rest.
