Top-Ranking Students in Class of 2002 Speak Out

Ryan Glamm

Senior Ryan Glamm delivers his speech at graduation. The theme chosen for this year was Past, Present, and Future. Ryan included some very poignant allusions to "The Price is Right" in his speech.

John Credicott

John's speech focused on the present. He used the Class of 2002's motto to emphasize his point. He wanted to remind the audience that it is important to live in the moment rather than focus on the past or worry about the future.

Patrick Powell

Patrick Powell is a gifted public speaker and his graduation speech was no exception. Patrick is a very forward-thinking individual, and his speech on the future communicated his ideas very well.

Graduation 2002

World War II veteran Mel Bretz was a special member of the Class of 2002. Recently, the government made it possible for WWII vets to receive high school diplomas if they were originally unable to graduate because they were serving in the military. Mel was a young man of 16 when he enlisted to serve our country in the war. As a result, he never was able to finish high school. Mel became a proud member of the Class of 2002. Shown here, he is delivering a speech at the ceremony.

with a unique opportunity...as well as a possible glimpse of the future*

Wedding Party

The entire class participated in the mock wedding. Here, they all pose together.

Father of the bride

Jeremy Cotterman poses as the father of the bride, leading Holly down the aisle amidst their many student guests.

Almost legal...

Mike & Holly say their vows before a genuine man of the cloth. Reverend Coppock performed the ceremony, and the only thing missing was a marriage certificate!

Always the bridesmaid....

Delneta looks great all decked out in her bridesmaid's dress.

Faculty/Staff

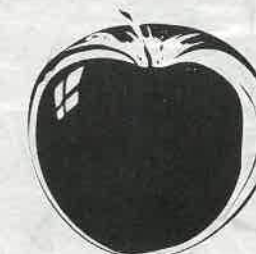

(Above) Kitchen staff members Karen Downs and Sharon Harmon work hard every day to make sure that we have a hot nutritious meal. We would like to express our appreciation to all of the wonderful people on the kitchen staff.

We are eternally grateful to our custodial staff for keeping our building looking good. R.J. Swartz (pictured above) is one of our valued custodians. Larry Snyder and Lee McKinnis are the other two full-time custodians. Thanks for a job well-done!
