PRESSURE

Underinflation is the leading cause of tire failure. It results in unnecessary tire stress, irregular wear, loss of control and accidents. A tire can lose up to half of its air pressure and not appear to be flat! Check it monthly and before long trips.

ALIGNMENT

A bad jolt from hitting a curb or pothole can throw your front end out of alignment and damage your tires. Have a tire dealer check the alignment periodically to ensure that your car is properly aligned.

ROTATION

Regularly rotating your vehicle's tires will help you achieve more uniform wear and help your tires last longer. Unless your vehicle's owners manual has a specific recommendation, the guideline for tire rotation is approximately every 8,000 miles.

TREAD

Advanced and unusual wear can reduce the ability of your tread to grip the road in adverse conditions. Visually check your tires for uneven wear, looking for high and low areas or unusually smooth areas. Also check for signs of damage.

Middle School Trip to NYC

April 28-May 3, 2003

A close up of one of NYPD's finest.

Ms. Powell strolls to the back of the bus to check out the action.

Photo Op! The group squishes together on the steps of St. John the Divine.

St. Patrick's Cathedral in the sunlight.

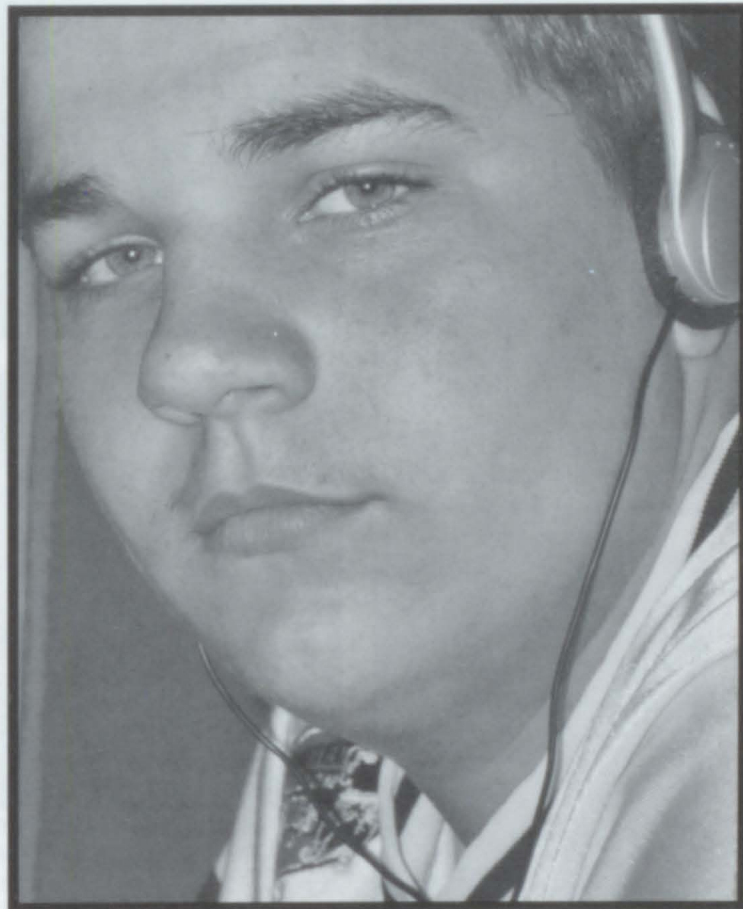

"Is everybody asleep? Well, you should be at 4:00 am.

Drew Dewulf stands in front of the Armor exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Chris Waldren through the reflection.

Steve Mills pauses for a moment to get some peace and quiet from his music.

NYC Looking Up! One sure way to tell the tourists from the natives is to watch the gazes. Looking up means you're a tourist!

A group of students head to the diner made famous as "Restaurant" in the Seinfeld Show.

Tiffany Hartman and Rueben Torres pose for a reflection shot with Times Square as a background.

What's that in your mouth? Matthew Smith hangs out in front of the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Allyssa Simon, Brittany Trevino and Baley Delancy model their new hats while Lindsey Hohman, Amber Warth and Ms. Neumann examine the goods.

We're not in North Baltimore any more! Eric Phillips gazes out at the Statue of Liberty as the bus pulls into the Big Apple.
