North Baltimore Local Schools

Mission Statement

The North Baltimore Local School System provides students with a diverse array of learning opportunities. Our mission is to meet the needs of children with unique educational abilities and talents in order to provide them with the opportunity to excel in their life choices. Students, staff, parents and community will work together to create an active learning environment and sensory-rich curriculum which will be enhanced by the use of technology. This will enable them to become productive and interactive citizens who can meet the needs of a progressive, ever-changing society.
