1] "It was really cool to be in the Mock Crash. I wanted to see what it was like to be involved in an accident. People can avoid this by not drinking and driving," said Brandon Senecal.

2] "Being in the Knights of Never has been a very fun and challenging experience. It's taught me that you can't just wait for things to come knocking on your door," said Tyler Chrulski.

3] "I went to winter homecoming with Chelsea Stewart and we had a lot of fun. I was dancing to Cotton Eyed Joe at that moment," said Halee Schaffner.

4] "I was really happy and nervous at the same time. When I heard I won, I was smiling really big and I almost cried because it was a big thing," said Courtney Rhinehart.

5] "I joined the spelling bee because I knew I could get somewhat close to winning. I was very proud of myself for winning," said Andrew Shelton.

6] "I decided to join Drama Club in 10th grade because my friends were in it. I like it because you get to be someone you're usually not," said Cody Switzer.

7] "I liked being part of powderpuff because it was really fun to do with my friends. They said it was a tie, but really the black team won," said Hailey Miller.

8] "This was the bubble blowing contest for Spirit Week. It seemed like a fun thing to do and you get to be all messy," said Kelsey Gazarek.

9] "Our float was Madden 2015 because it's the year we graduate. Our float theme was football for the football game," said Lindsay Davis.

10] "I went on the trip so I could learn more about D.C. and just see what it was like there. This trip helped me learn more about our nation's capital," said Beth Busch.

11] "I had the best time at the dance. It was Hawaiian Lual and I limboed, breakdanced, and danced obviously," said Anousanh Ornpaeng.

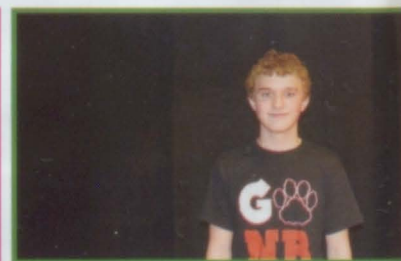

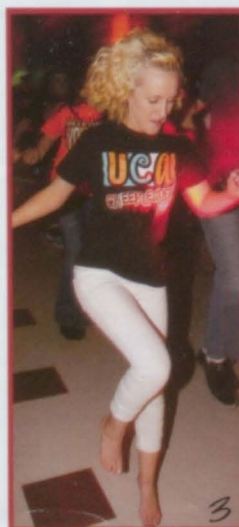

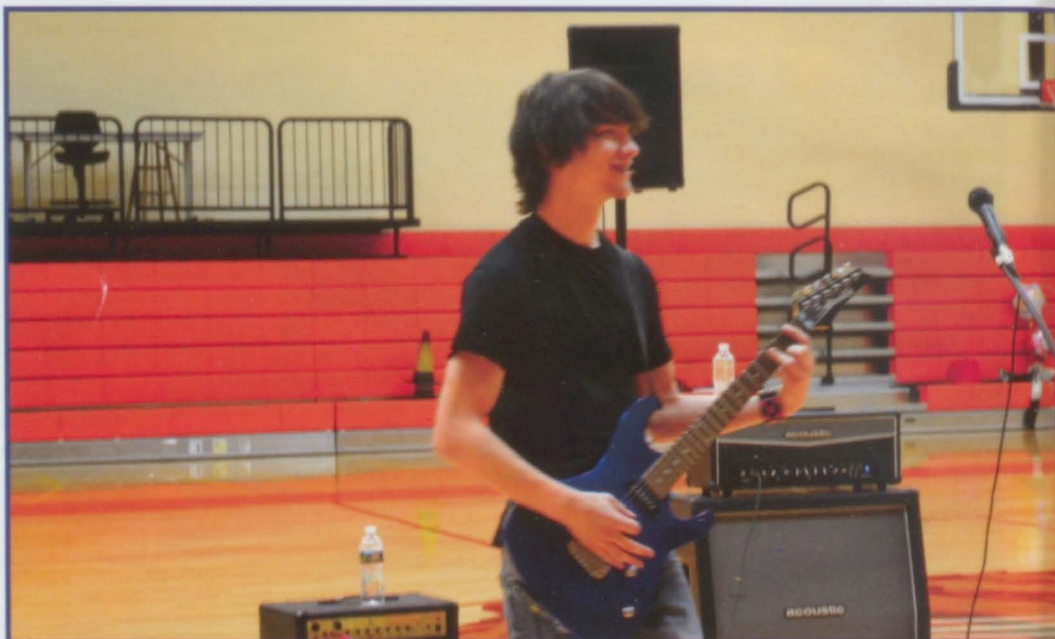

12] Miss Ohio came to North Baltimore High School to talk about cyber bullying. At the end of the assembly she painted the students' pinkies blue and had us pinky promise with her that we would not bully.

13] "I was cheering at a pep rally for homecoming week in The Jungle," said Leslie Busch.

14] "The blood drive went all right except I got dizzy a lot. I love helping out so I decided to participate in the blood drive," said Danielle Ferguson.

15] "The dance was a blast because I got to spend time with Megan. My favorite part was getting my groove on," said Robert Lyberg.

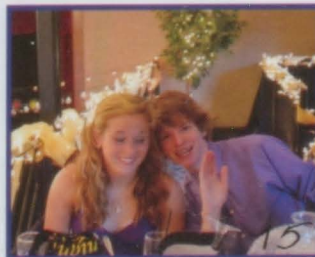

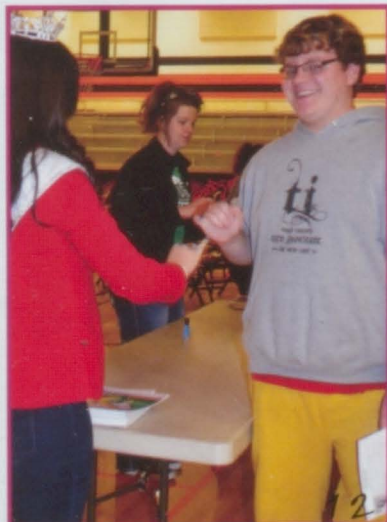

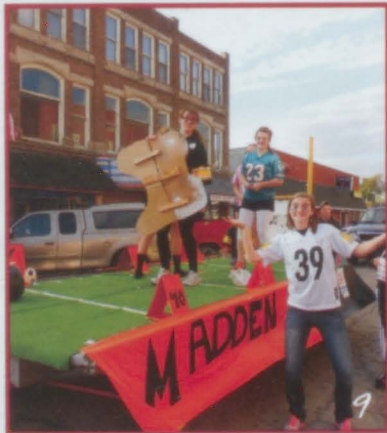

16] Mr. Archer and Officer Slane tied for first place in the Christmas Door Decorating Contest. Mr. Archer's door was Jingle Bells and Officer Slane had Silent Night.

Publications

This year there were 15 students enrolled in publications. Mrs. Miller has been the year book advisor for 10 years. The yearbook staff use Jostens to help put the yearbook together. Jostens is an online site that has all the tools to make the yearbook great! Publications is a class you have to take very seriously because it goes out to the public. They get to have a pizza party after each deadline they complete. Also they get a Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter party as well. Publications used to be taught by the English department, until Mrs Miller was asked to take it over. "We get our ideas from the workshops that we attend. We also talk about the trends that are going on in the school in order to get the ideas for the book. The class is structured to run as business because we actually produce a product that we sell to students and the community. I enjoy teaching students about how a real life business would be. My background is computers and business and Publications deals with both," said Mrs. Miller.

1) "I was inspired to take Publications because I thought the class would be fun. My favorite part of the year is at the end of the year when the book comes together," said Caleigh Pryor.

2) "My favorite thing about being head editor is being able to help my fellow classmates out and give them advice. The end of the year can be very stressful because there are so many pages to edit," said Mariah Leonard.

3] "I thought that Publications could give me a opportunity to create history for the school," said Christian Richmond.

4] "This is my first year of taking Publications and I'm one of the head editors. The hardest part about being head editor is making sure everyone meets their deadline on time," said Jacob Pelton.

5] "It was an honor to be the only senior working on the senior section of the yearbook. I hope all the seniors have warm thoughts when they look through all the sections that captured their last year, especially the Senior Section," said Chad Smith, Senior Editor.

6] "My favorite thing about Publications is being able to participate in the parties," said Marisa Fenstermaker.

7] "I enjoy helping my classmates, like Savannah because it makes me feel good about the yearbook," said Alyssah Leary.

8] "I liked the Publication parties because the food was always good. I took this class a second time because it would look good on college applications," said Abigail Patterson.

9] "When we went to French Quarters they gave me a idea on what the yearbook pages should look like," said Hayleigh Simon.

10] "My favorite thing about Publications was the things Mrs. Miller did to reward us for meeting deadlines," said Derek Archer.

1) Tyler Stimmel and Cody Switzer recited the Star Spangled Banner during the school dedication. Cody felt the dedication was "Awesome!"

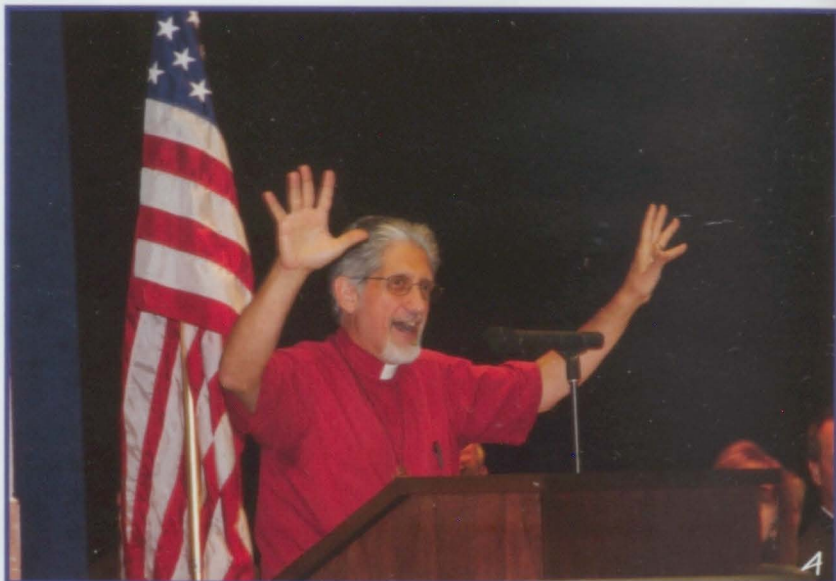

2) Ashley Wagner was asked to speak at the school dedication by Dr. Falkenstein. "I was nervous pretty much the whole time," said Ashley Wagner.

3) Minister, Ralph Mineo had the honor of blessing the new school on 2012 Tiger Drive.

4) The North Baltimore American Legion's Color Guard presented flags at the ceremony.

5) A Time Capsule was sealed behind "The Memories of NBHS 2012" plaque in the main hallway. All of the items were gathered by Mr. Hollenbaugh. According to Dr. Falkenstein, the time capsule included "A varsity jacket, 2011 yearbook, pictures of people in cars, pictures of the old school, last years graduation program, and a CD full of pictures."

6) Kiah Powell participated in the school dedication where the band played many songs. "I thought we played the fight song the best. I was glad I got to support my school in this special event."

A NEW BEGINNING

Administration

On September 19, 2012, the NBLS Superintendent, Principal, School Board members, American Legion members, as well as community members and students dedicated the new school at 2012 Tiger Drive. Filled with generous spirit and pride, the school and community members celebrated the work they did together from conception to completion. Superintendent, Mrs. North, is satisfied with the new school. "I love the new school! I am so pleased with how it looks. How pleased the community is with the results, and how respectful our students are being with our new building!" Dr. Falkenstein, Principal, is proud of the new school as well. "Our academics have improved tremendously with the middle school and high school, as noticed with our ranking. High school received Excellent again and the middle school also received Excellent with Distinction, and that is where we start here. We have a solid background on which to build our new school." This building is the start of a new beginning for the students of North Baltimore.

2] High school algebra teacher, Mr. Luderman, was the mastermind behind the new "Battle of the Classes" and other homecoming events. He said "I think student council handled the new ideas well and found a way to encourage all students to participate".

Student Council was faced with a new challenge this year, integrating all of the old into the new. They also attempted to fill the school year with flairs of originality too. Every student council member worked their hardest to make the new building and it's first year something special. "We all worked together and helped out the whole school. We fed off of each other's ideas and created a fresh start for the new school," said senior student council president Ashley Wagner. The Fall Homecoming parade, both the Fall and Winter Homecoming dances, the Blood-Drive, and all of the homecoming week activities were all arranged by Student Council. Next year, Student Council will further attempt to reinvent itself and it's influence on the school and it's activities. They hope to induct some fresh minds next year, and plan on a bright future for the school.

The sophomore class won the newly introduced "Battle of the Classes" in both the Fall and Winter Homecoming seasons.

3] Hallee Schaffner dances with friends at the winter homecoming dance organized by student council. "I thought the best thing that student council did was the slide show at the dance."

4] Junior, Gabriel De Los Reyes was feeling good after his blood donation. When asked how student council could improve the blood drive, he answered, "by putting a TV in the gym!"

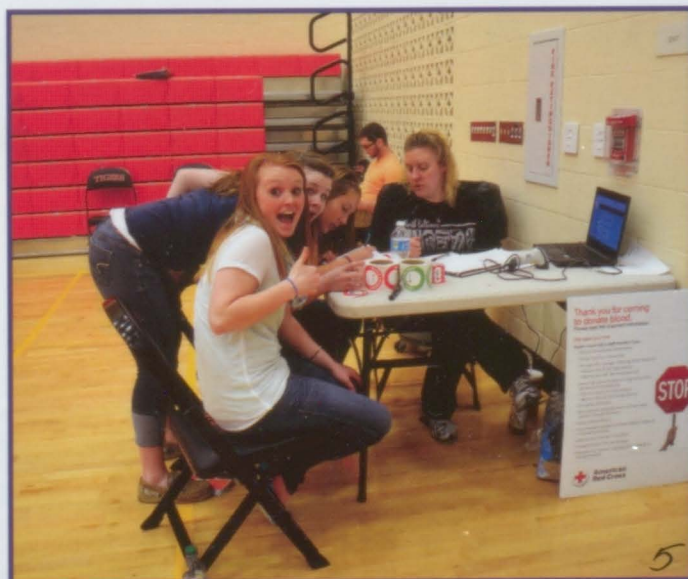

5] Ashley Wager gave a thumbs up to greet blood donors. She said, "student council is important because it keeps students involved with a variety of activities, including helping to run the blood drive."

6] "I enjoyed being active in student council because I like to voice my opinions," said Senior, Ricci Emahiser. She also said that the only change that she would incorporate into student council would be to get more thoughts from different students to obtain a wider variety of fresh ideas.

Kelsey Gazarek helped out on Blood Drive Day by donating. She decided to donate because she wanted to help make a difference and save lives.

1] "The last few questions are the most intense part of the match because if you want to win, you have to step it up. Our hardest match was against Findlay because they had a lot more kids than us," said Paige Bowen.

2] "I could've answered a lot more questions this past year. Our team could have worked harder, too. This is my second year playing and I'm going to continue next year," said Ashley Rainbolt.

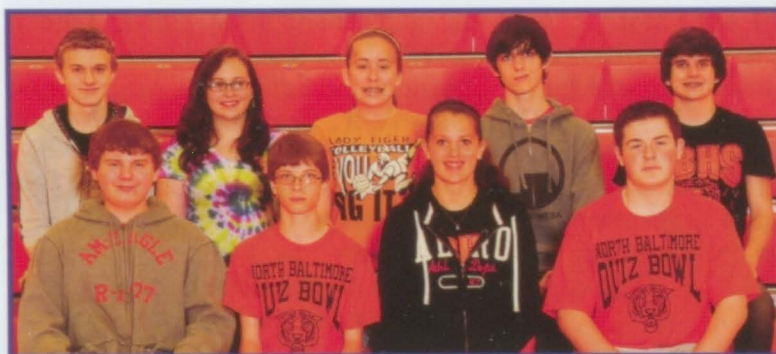

7] "The hardest part was not being able to answer questions. It would've been better if I had known more answers," said Brittany Daughenbaugh.

8] "The most difficult part of quiz bowl is answering questions. It would be a lot better if I was smarter," said Conner Law.

9] "I make myself better by studying and I play because it's fun," said Kiah Powell.

10] "My favorite part of quiz bowl is answering questions and getting them correct. I prepare myself by looking questions up on the computer," said Caleb Donaldson.

11] "I did great in all the matches. I'm going to get a quiz bowl scholarship. I play quiz bowl because football seems difficult," said Robert Lyberg.

3] "I make myself better by studying packets and books. I play because it's fun," said Kiah Powell.

4] "We were invited to a party in which only two schools were invited, which was pretty exciting. We also got invited to Brain Games," said Cody Switzer.

5] "I've participated in quiz bowl for five years and I really enjoy it. It has given me the opportunity to make friends. Our best match this year was beating TSA," said Emily Law.

6] "When I answer questions correctly, it gives me an adrenaline rush. The most points I've scored is 12 points in a match. Studying helps you win matches and remember answers. When we have faith in ourselves we win," said Alexis Julien.

This quiz bowl season was a learning experience for both Junior High and High School teams. "This has been a building season. I'm looking forward to the eighth graders moving up and not losing any of the high school members," said Mrs. Miller, high school coach. Both teams conducted a fundraiser to purchase new buzzers. They have raised three-fourths of the money needed and will purchase the new buzzers next fall. All quiz bowl members agreed that it was a fun season and a good learning experience. The high school quiz bowl team participated in Brain Games, a televised quiz bowl match facing Toledo Prep College. They also taped a match with Liberty Center for WNWO's Academic Challenge. "I was nervous all season that I would never get an answer right, but through the season I gained confidence in myself to answer the questions correctly," said Alexis Julien. "I had a lot of fun and wasn't worried at all because I had done quiz bowl the previous year," said Caleb Donaldson. All in all, both teams had a fulfilling and fun season.

retreat was the glow in the dark dance on the last night. Teen Institute teaches you not to do drugs in high school," said LeAnn.

8) "Junior Teen Institute helps people stop doing drugs and it tells me not to do drugs and not ruin my life," said Tyler.

9) Mr. Kipplen has been teaching students at this school for three years about the effects of drugs and alcohol.

1) "I like JTI because it's fun. I joined because my friends encouraged me to and I count on it to be a safe place," said Desaray.

2) "Teen Institute gives me a chance to spend time with my friends, meet new people, and have fun. It gives people a support system if they need it," said Brittany.

3) "I joined Junior Teen Institute because I thought it would help me through high school and it does. I like it because my friends are in it," said Chantel.

4) "We were playing a life-sized board game about Junior Teen Institute at Rossford High School. I joined because my uncle died of a heroin overdose and I'm in it for him," said Wesley.

5) "This was a presentation on FAS (Fetal Alcohol Syndrome). I thought it would be a good experience to teach younger students," said Jaymie.

6) "Our group joined the dodge-ball tournament because we are all good at dodge-ball. We dominated the competition," said Levi Newcomer.

10] "I like Teen Institute because we do things outside of class like our retreats. I joined because I think it's good to learn about drugs and safety at our school," said Ahshawlee.

11] "These are drunk goggles. They show you what it was like to see when you are drunk. I thought it would be really cool and it was fun," said Isaiah.

12] "It was a Teen Institute fun day in Mr. Kipplen's room. I played Sorry with Amber Williams, Ashley Fisher, and Halie Pena because Sorry is a fun game," said Skiilar.

13] "I joined Junior Teen Institute because I have family members who died of drug abuse and I want to make sure nobody else has that problem," said Aubrey.

14] "Junior Teen Institute is fun and it helps people through their problems. It helps by telling them what not to do in life," said Jazmin.

1] "The hardest part of playing powder puff football was not being able to tackle other girls," said Senior Kelsey Gazarek. "If I could have changed the game I would make it so we could tackle and have it juniors against seniors. I have wanted to play in the annual powder puff game after seeing my older sister play when I was younger."

2] "My favorite part of the evening was slow dancing with Skylar Hall," said Megan Wright. "The dance was so much fun. I would not have wanted to be any place else."

3] "Although I would have rather been homesleeping," said Mackenzie Potter, "I did enjoy dancing and being with my friends."

4] Hanna Brian dressed up to show her school spirit on Trash Bag Day. "I saw the outfit on Google."

5] Emma Rister, competed in the first tug of war challenge at the pep rally. "The hardest part for me was keeping hold of the rope." The freshman team's technique was to put the boys in the back and the girls in the front, it worked well enough to beat the seniors.

6] "My favorite part of the night was the end because I got to go home and be warm," said Jasmine Bretz. She danced the night away with longtime boyfriend Jady Snyder.

7] Searching through a pie pan of whipped cream, Lacey Hall had to find a piece of bubble gum, unwrap it, chew it, and blow a bubble with out using her hands. "The gum was hard to chew because it was very soggy."

8] "Getting my groove on," said Ladislado (Laddy) Pecina. "My favorite part was party boying Ms. Lauer. There is no place I would have rather been then at the dance."

9] Dressed in all black and white, Allyson Flores and her senior group lip synced to "Nobody's Perfect" by Hanna Montana. "My boot cast was the most embarrassing part for me. I could have made our performance better by not laughing so much."

10] The junior homecoming float, Mario Cart Game, had several juniors dressing as their favorite game character. Morgan Schloemp dressed as the turtle. "We didn't think any of the other classes would use this theme. The best part was throwing candy to the crowd."

11] Dominique Buchanan choose to ham it up when she found out that most of her classmates were wearing their pj's on Pajama Day.
