View and Chew

For our FREE movie this month we will be showing the romantic comedy “Maybe I Do” starring Diane Keaton, Richard Gere, Susan Sarandon, Emma Roberts, Luke Bracy and William H. Macy.

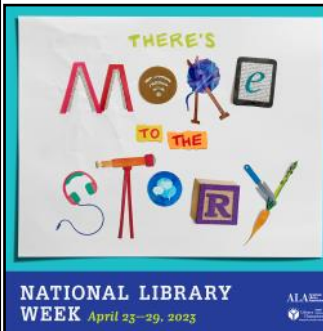

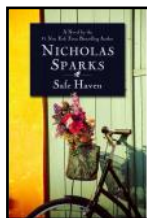

“Michelle and Allen are in a relationship. They decide to invite their parents to finally meet about marriage. Turns out, the parents already know one another well.”

The movie will be at the Virginia Theater (119 N. Main St) with doors opening at 5:30 pm and the movie starting at 6 pm. Concessions will be available to purchase. We hope to see you there!

Book Chatters

Book Chatters will be discussing “Safe Haven” by Nicholas Sparks on April 25th in the Wolfe Community Room at 6:30 pm. Join us by first reading – “a captivating love story filled with suspense and mystery.”

The complete list of this year’s titles will be available with the Book Chatters’ display near the Main Desk and on our website.

North Baltimore Public Library encourages all community members to visit the library during National Library Week, April 23-29, to explore all they have to offer.

Most people know about the wealth of stories available at the library, from picture books and large print to audiobooks and e-books. But there's so much more to the story of libraries.

Libraries are welcoming spaces that bring communities together for entertainment, education, and connection through book clubs, story times, movies, crafts, lectures, and more. North Baltimore Public Library offers a wide array of programs, classes and resources, including Book Chatter’s Book Club, Take and Make crafts for children and adults, author visits, our creative collection, and educational programs.

If you haven't checked out North Baltimore Public Library lately, you're missing the full story. Stop by for a visit to celebrate with us during National Library Week, April 23-29.
