View and Chew Returns

We are excited to announce the return of the monthly movie matinee View and Chew, but at a new venue. We have partnered with The Virginia Theater in downtown North Baltimore to show the matinees in the historic theater. Each month we will have a free to the public movie. Doors of the theater will open at noon with the movie starting at 12:30 pm. The concession stand will be open with freshly popped popcorn, snacks, and drinks to purchase if you so choose. We are looking forward to this new partnership to provide our patrons with a more authentic movie-going experience. Our first movie will be on February 17th and we will be showing "Spencer" starring Kristen Stewart as Princess Diana with a run time of 2 hours. We look forward to seeing you at the movie!

Book Chatters

Join us on Tuesday, February 22nd at 1:00 pm and at 6:30 pm in the Wolfe Community Room. This month we will be discussing MARY JANE by Jessica Anya Blau. Drop by for an interesting and informal chat about books – yes, even if you did not get the entire book read!

Snow People EXTENDED

Brrr, it had been cold, and even though our Snow People are loving it, our human patrons have not. We have not had many people in to vote for our annual Snow People contest. Not only has the cold kept everyone snuggled up at home but when people drive by they are usually looking at the building across the street that was recently destroyed by a major fire. For those reasons, we have decided to extend the voting for the Snow People contest. Voting will now go through February 4th at 6 pm. So be sure to come in and bring your change so that you can vote for your favorite Snow Person.

Since we have extended the voting, the silent auction of the Snow People will now run from February 7th through the 18th. During this time you can call the library at 419-257-3621 or stop at the main desk and place a bid. If you are the highest bidder you will be notified February 21st, when you will then be able to come in to pay, and take home your very own Snow Person.

Adult Take and Make Craft

The take and make craft this month is a cute heart door hanger to help celebrate Valentine's Day. The wooden heart is decorated with paper, ribbon and flowers. All kits include the supplies needed, as well as instructions to complete the project. Kits will be available in mid-February.
