Hoopla Digital offers audiobooks, eBooks, comics and manga, music, movies, TV, and more with BingePass, all available 24/7 with no holds and no waiting. To get started, simply visit hoopladigital.com or download the hoopla app from your device's app store, and sign up with your NB library card.

With over 1.5 million titles available instantly and more being added each week, hoopla truly has something for everyone. Start exploring! Each patron can borrow 7 titles per month.

We're so excited to share hoopla and all of the great content it offers. If you have questions, please contact us at 419-257-3621.

View and Chew

The November FREE movie will be "The Blind" the true story of reality star Phil Roberts. Before he fell in love, started a family and built a dynasty his demons threatened to tear their lives apart.

The movie will be shown on Thursday, November 16th with a start time of 6 pm at The Virginia Theater (119 N. Main St.)

The theater doors will open at 5:30 pm. Concessions will be available for purchase. We look forward to seeing you there!

Book Chatters

The book club selection for November is Plain Secrets: An Outsider among the Amish by Joe Mackall. The discussion will take place on Tuesday, November 28th at 6:30 pm in the Wolfe Community Room.

"...tells the Shetlers' story over these years, using their lives to paint a portrait of Swartzentruber Amish life and mores."

This is the final Book Chatters for 2023, as we don't meet in December! Look for the 2024 book list at the main desk and on our website before the New Year.

Santa Claus Is Coming

The North Baltimore Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus on Wednesday, December 6th, 2023 at the North Baltimore Public Library. The jolly old elf and his wife will arrive at 6 pm. Along with Santa visiting, Olde Tyme Travel will also be providing free horse drawn carriage rides around downtown.
