Winter Reading 2024

Winter Reading is off to a STELLAR start! Everyone is still welcome to come in and join for a FREE pair of Eclipse glasses through March 22 – or until we run out! Checking out books, magazines, movies – even with Hoopla or Libby! – or trying a weekly contest, will give you extra entries for one of our grand prize baskets to be drawn at the end of March! Kid and teen prizes, too! Thanks to the Friends of the NB Library, Amplex Internet and our local McDonald's for contributing prizes! Also, Thank You to the STAR Library Network, a hands-on learning network for libraries across the country, for the generous contribution of glasses and resources provided to prepare all of us to experience the "Path to Totality" on April 8th!

Book Chatters

Join the Book Chatters as we prepare for the big eclipse! We are meeting to discuss "Black Sun" by Rebecca Roanhorse on Tuesday, March 26 at 6:30 pm in the Wolfe Community Room.

From Amazon.com – "The "engrossing and vibrant" first book in the Between Earth and Sky trilogy inspired by the civilizations of the Pre-Columbian Americas and woven into a tale of celestial prophecies, political intrigue, and forbidden magic."

Easter Bunny Photos

The Friends of the North Baltimore Public Library invite you to come meet the Easter Bunny. On Thursday, March 21st the Easter Bunny will be in the Wolfe Community Room from 4:30 pm – 6:30 pm. All ages are welcome to come for a visit and snap a picture with the easter bunny and his best bunny friend! While you are there D.S. Brown will also be providing some fun spring activities. Donations to the Friends are appreciated during this event.
